III. SCOPE

The Code shall be applicable to Directors, connected persons, the insiders, the Designated Employees and the promoters and immediate relatives

IV. CODE

1. Compliance officer

The Company has appointed the Company Secretary as Compliance officer who shall report on insider trading to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the Board of Directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board of Directors.

1.1. Duties of Compliance officer

- 1.1.1. He shall maintain a record of designated employees and any changes made therein.

- 1.1.2. He may, in consultation with the Chairman and Managing Director and as directed by the Board, specify prohibited period from time to time and immediately make an announcement thereof.
- 1.1.3. He shall maintain a record of Prohibited Period specified from time to time.
- 1.1.4. He shall be responsible for setting forth policies, procedures, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of 'Price Sensitive Information' 'Pre-clearing of 'designated employee' and their dependents' trades, monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Code of Conduct under the overall supervision of the Board of the Company.
- 1.1.5. The Compliance Officer shall assist all employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Company's Code of Conduct.

2. Preservation of "Price Sensitive Information"

All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

Following practices should be followed in this regard: -

2.1. Restrictions: -

2.1.1. Every person preparing and circulating any unpublished price sensitive information (UPSI) as defined under the Regulations shall ensure to notify the following notation “Private, Privileged and Confidential” on each such document / statement.

2.1.2. Need to Know

- (i) “need to know” basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- (ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

2.1.3. Limited access to confidential information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure by the concerned department. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc. Files containing confidential information should be deleted/ destroyed after its use.

2.1.4. UPSI shall not be disclosed/ communicated to any person within RIL or outside except when the concerned person reasonably believes that such disclosure is required to enable proper and effective conduct of business and that they will have no information to believe that the information will be misused or improperly disclosed by the recipient.

2.1.5. Not to advise or induce or communicate or counsel any other person to deal in shares of the company on the basis of UPSI.

2.1.6. Not to trade (buy / sell) in securities of the Company either directly or through relatives, friends etc. on the basis of any UPSI.

2.1.7. Not to trade (buy /Sell) in securities of the Company directly or through relatives friends etc during closure of trading window as announced by compliance officer from time to time.

2.1.8. To comply with the norms under the code including disclosure of the transactions to the Compliance Officer.

2.2 Prevention of misuse of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role (“designated persons”) in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

2.2.1 Trading Plan

An insider shall be entitle to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

2.2.2 Trading Plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

2.2.3 The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

2.2.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

2.2.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

3. Prohibition To Buy/Sell Securities of the Company by Insider

Insider when in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information pertaining to the Company, shall not:

 5. Declaration of Dividends (Interim and Final);
 6. Any change in Policies, plans or operations of the Company; and
 7. Any other information which can be considered to be price sensitive.

The Trading Window shall open 48 hours after close of the Board Meeting at which decisions in respect of the above events are taken.

5. Prior Approval to Buy/Sell Securities by Specified Persons

- 5.1.1. All the Specified persons of the Company shall get prior clearance from compliance officer of the proposed acquisition/ purchase/ sale transactions by themselves or through their dependent family members as per the procedure described hereunder if the said transaction of the securities of Company in a month is in excess of 2000 in number or Rupees One Lac in market value, whichever is lower (either in one transaction or in a series of transaction(s)).

- 5.1.2. The application for prior clearance shall be made to the Compliance Officer of the Company in the prescribed format as specified in Annexure 1 of the Code.
- 5.1.3 An undertaking (Annexure 2) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Specified Employee incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
- (a) That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or has not received “Price Sensitive Information” up to the time of signing the undertaking.
 - (b) That in case the Specified Employee has access to or receives “Price Sensitive Information” after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
 - (c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - (d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- 5.1.4 Such purchase/ sale of securities by the Compliance Officer shall require prior clearance from the Chairman of the Company.
- 5.1.5 Purchase/ sale transaction, for which prior clearance has been obtained, shall be valid only for one week from the date of communication within which period it shall be consummated/ executed and shall lapse thereafter. If the transaction is not consummated/ executed within one week from the approval date, the employee/ director will be required to follow the process of prior clearance again.
- 5.1.6 All the Specified persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next 6 months following the prior transaction.
- 5.1.7 All the Specified persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time.
- 5.1.8 In case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted. All the Specified persons shall hold the securities of the Company for a minimum period of 30 days from the date of purchase ('Minimum Holding Period'). In case of personal emergency, the prior approval of the Compliance Officer shall be taken for relaxation in the Minimum Holding Period. In respect of the Compliance Officer, such relaxation shall require prior approval of the Chairman.

5.1.9. The Compliance Officer will scrutinize the application within 2 working days of submission and communicate the approval/ refusal (along with reasons therefore) to the applicant. The decision of the Compliance Officer in this regard will be final. In the absence of the Compliance Officer, the Chairman and Managing Director will decide upon the prior clearance application. Format of preclearance of order is annexed as Annexure 3

5.1.10. The requirements of prior clearance of a proposed transaction shall not apply in the following cases:

1. In the event of participation of a public event i.e. rights or a bonus issue.
2. In the case of any acquisition of shares through transmission or inheritance, or like mode.
3. By way of any court settlement or award thereof.
