8. Methodology

The following methodology shall be adopted in planning and execution of the CSR projects, programs and activities:

8.1 Planning

The planning for Corporate Social Responsibility shall start with the identification of the activities/projects to be undertaken. CSR projects/activities shall be undertaken in the periphery where the company carries out its commercial activities as far as possible. Where this is not possible, the Company may choose to locate CSR projects anywhere in the country.

Corporate Social Responsibility strategies shall be developed that mandate the design of Corporate Social Responsibility Action Plan (which may be Long term, medium-term and short-term or Annual Plan), with project based accountability approach.

The Annual plan under CSR shall be integrated with the social and environment concerns related to the business of the company.

Selection of activities under CSR shall be made to ensure that the benefits reach the smallest unit i.e. village, panchayat, block or district depending upon the operations and resource allocation. The approach to CSR planning shall be long-term sustainable approach. The Project Management and Monitoring skills available shall be shared as far as possible, with the local administration by training and setting up required structures and systems.

The long-term Corporate Social Responsibility Plan shall match with the long term Business Plan. This shall be broken down into medium term and short term plans. Each of these plans shall clearly specify:

- i) Requirements relating to baseline survey;
- ii) Activities to be undertaken;
- iii) Budgets allocated;
- iv) Time-lines prescribed;
- v) Responsibilities and authorities defined;
- vi) Major results expected.

Such plans shall also clearly specify the implementation guidelines and the involvement of the implementing agency. The procedures and methodologies prescribed for monitoring shall be highlighted as well as the modalities of the concurrent and final evaluation. Finally, there shall mandatory documentation of the experience.

8.2 Implementation

CSR initiatives of the Company shall consider the following parameters for identification/selection of schemes/projects:
