A. Introduction:

Raunaq EPC International Limited (the “Company” or “REIL”), its subsidiary companies and associate companies, if any (“the Group”) would, in ordinary course of business, enter into transactions with a related party or parties.

The Board of Directors (“the Board”) of REIL has adopted the following policy and procedures with regard to Related Party Transactions as defined below. The Audit Committee will review and may amend this policy from time to time. This policy is to regulate transactions between the Company and its Related Parties based on the applicable laws and regulations.

B. Objectives:

The Board of Directors (“the Board”) of REIL recognizes that Related Party Transactions (as defined below) can present potential or actual conflicts of interest or the perception thereof. Therefore, the Board has adopted Related Party Transactions Policy (this “Policy”) to set forth the procedures under which transactions with Related Parties shall be reviewed for approval or ratification in accordance with the procedures set forth below.

This Policy is designed to ensure that the related party transactions (“RPTs”) are carried out in the ordinary course of business of REIL and are at arm’s length.

This policy also aims to comply with the provisions of the Companies Act 2013 (“the Act”) and rules framed there under and Regulation 23 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“ the Regulations”).

No Related Party Transaction may be entered into by the Company, or any of its subsidiaries or associates, except in accordance with the provisions of this Policy.

The policy is based on the provisions of section 188 of the Act and Regulation 23 of the Regulations. If there is any modification in the provisions of section 188 of the Act and Regulation 23 of the Regulations or if there is any notification or circular or any clarification issued by Ministry of Corporate Affairs or SEBI relating to the section 188 of the Act and/or Regulation 23 of the Regulations, in such case the Company would be required to revise the policy appropriately.

C. Definitions:

For the purpose of this policy, the following definitions apply:

1 Definitions under Companies Act, 2013

• Related Party

Section 2(76) of the Companies Act, 2013 defines Related Party as follows:

“Related party”, with reference to a company, means—

- (i) a director or his relative;
- (ii) a key managerial personnel or his relative;
- (iii) a firm, in which a director, manager or his relative is a partner;
- (iv) a private company in which a director or manager or his relative is a member or director;
- (v) a public company in which a director or manager is a director and holds along with his relatives, more than two per cent of its paid-up share capital;
- (vi) any body corporate whose Board of Directors, managing director or manager is accustomed to act in accordance with the advice, directions or instructions of a director or manager;
- (vii) any person on whose advice, directions or instructions a director or manager is accustomed to act;
- (viii) any body corporate which is—
 - (a) a holding, subsidiary or an associate company of such company;
 - (b) a subsidiary of a holding company to which it is also a subsidiary; or
 - (c) an investing company or the venturer of the company;

Explanation - For the purpose of this clause, “the investing company or the venturer of a company” means a body corporate whose investment in the company would result in the company becoming an associate company of the body corporate.

- (ix) such other person as may be prescribed [For the purposes of sub-clause (ix) of clause (76) of Section 2 of the Act, a director, other than an independent director or key managerial personnel of the holding company or his relative with reference to a company, shall be deemed to be a related party.]

• Relative

2. Identification of Related Party Transactions

Each Director and Key Managerial Personnel would be responsible for providing notice to the Company of any potential Related Party Transaction involving him or her or his or her Relative, including any additional information about the transaction that the Company may reasonably request.

The Directors and KMPs will ensure that their notice of any potential Related Party Transaction is delivered well in advance so that the Audit Committee has adequate time to obtain and review information about the proposed transaction.

REIL would collate list of transactions / contracts / arrangements likely to be entered into with each related party (as identified above) and estimated value of such transactions before the beginning of each financial year and obtain necessary approvals in accordance with this Policy.

3. Review and Approval of Related Party Transactions

Review of Related Party Transactions

The Audit Committee of the Board will review and, if appropriate, approve Related Party Transactions. Accordingly, at the last meeting of the Audit Committee in every financial year / at the end of every financial year through circular resolution, management shall present to the Committee the following information with respect to all Related Party Transactions expected to be entered into during subsequent financial year:

- the name of the related party and nature of relationship;
- the nature, duration of the contract and particulars of the contract or arrangement;
- the material terms of the contract or arrangement including the value, if any;
- any advance paid or received for the contract or arrangement, if any;

- the manner of determining the pricing and other commercial terms, both included as part of contract and not considered as part of the contract;
- whether all factors relevant to the contract have been considered, if not, the details of factors not considered with the rationale for not considering those factors; and
- any other information relevant or important for the Board to take a decision on the proposed transaction.

After reviewing such information, the members of the Audit Committee (without the participation the Committee member(s) interested in the transaction, if any) shall approve or disapprove such transactions. Approval of such transactions shall be given only if it is determined by the Audit Committee that such transactions are:

- (a) in (or not inconsistent with) the best interests of the Company and its shareholders;
- (b) to be entered into by the Company (or its subsidiary or associate entity) on terms that are comparable to those that would be obtained in arm's length transactions with unrelated third parties;
- (c) In the ordinary course of the business of the Company. ("Ordinary course of business for this purpose will cover the businesses of REIL group and usual transactions, customs and practices of a business and would include activities to be carried out incidental or to facilitate the business of REIL group and is usual or customary to the Company and/ or its line of business);
- (d) such that there are compelling business reasons and commercial considerations for REIL to enter into related party transaction and is in the circumstances the best of the various alternatives available.

No member of the Audit Committee shall participate in the review, consideration or approval of any Related Party Transaction with respect to which such member or any of his or her relative is a Related Party.

If any material information with respect to such transactions shall change subsequent to the Audit Committee's review of such transactions, management shall provide the Audit Committee with updated information at a subsequent meeting and will get the changes approved afresh by the Audit Committee.

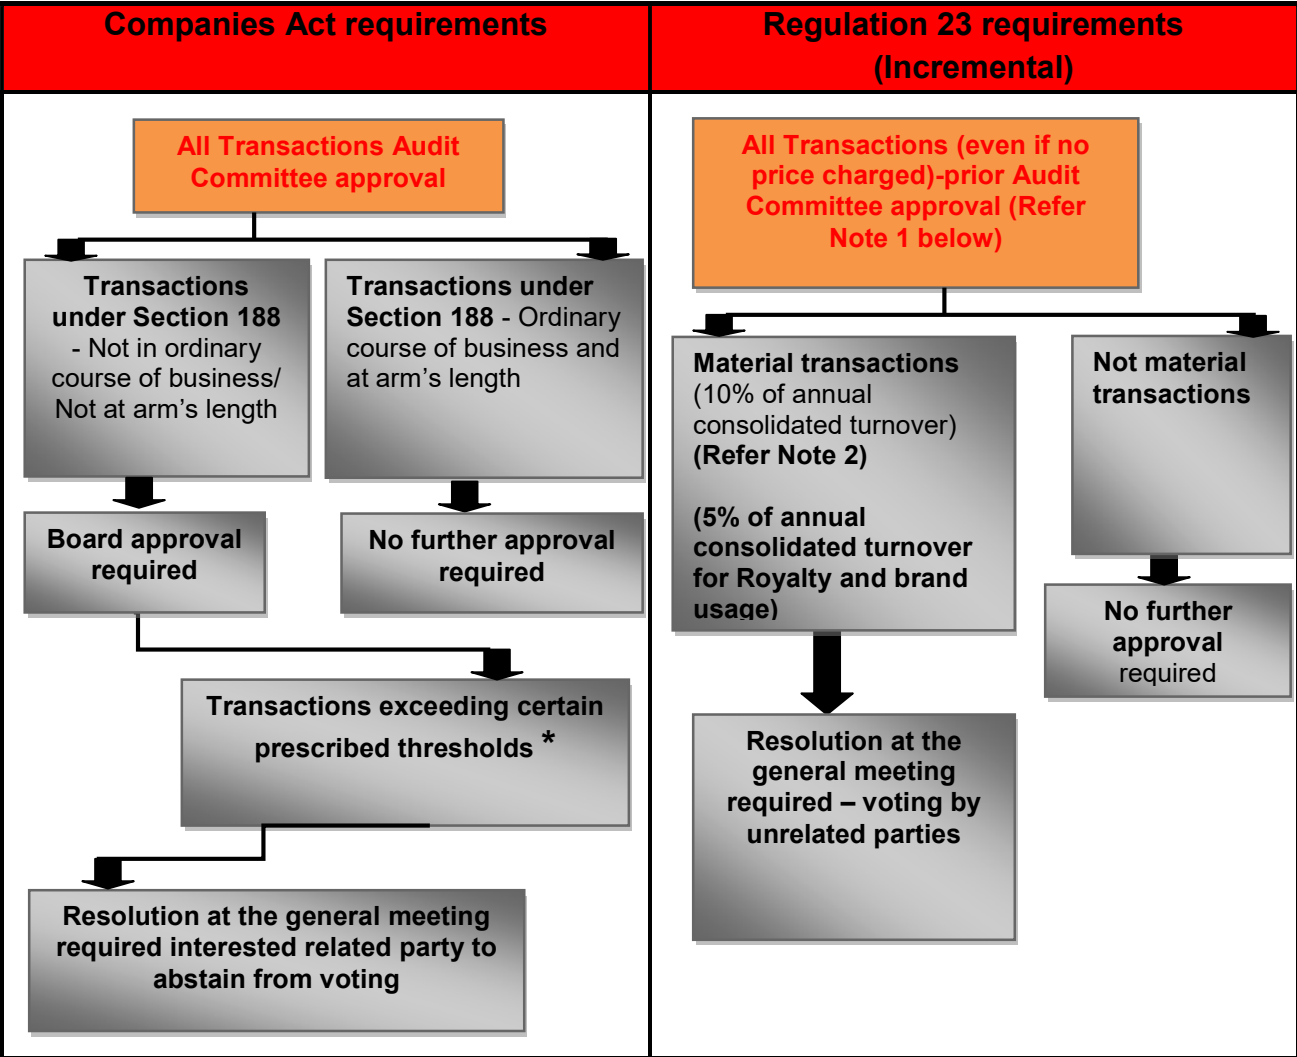

If any additional Related Party Transactions are proposed to be entered into subsequent to the Audit Committee's last meeting / at the end of every financial year, management shall present such transactions to the Audit Committee for approval before entering into such transaction (which can be taken by calling a meeting or by resolution passed through circulation).

All the Directors are required to declare and disclose his concerns or interests in any company or companies or bodies corporate at the first Board meeting in every financial year and subsequently whenever there is any change in disclosures. In addition, the Directors have to give an undertaking that all business transactions entered into between the REIL and themselves comply with the terms of this Policy.

Approvals of Related Party Transactions

The approval process as required under the Companies Act, 2013 (updated to reflect subsequent clarifications issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs) and under the Regulations has been diagrammatically explained in the flow chart given below:

* (a) as contracts or arrangements with respect to clauses (a) to (e) of sub-section (1) of section 188, with criteria as mention below-

Note 1: Omnibus Approval by Audit Committee

All Related Party Transactions would require prior approval of the Audit Committee. However, the Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions proposed to be entered into by the company subject to the following conditions:

- a. The Audit Committee would lay down the criteria for granting the omnibus approval in line with the policy on Related Party Transactions of the company and such approval shall be applicable in respect of transactions which are repetitive in nature;
- b. The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the company;
- c. Such omnibus approval shall specify (i) the name/s of the related party, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into, (ii) the indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any and (iii) such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit;

Provided that where the need for Related Party Transaction cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding Rs.1 crore per transaction.

- d. Audit Committee shall review, at least on a quarterly basis, the details of RPTs entered into by the company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval given.

- e. Such omnibus approvals shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approvals after the expiry of one year.

Note 2: Exemption from shareholder approval

All material Related Party Transactions shall require approval of the shareholders through resolution and no related party shall vote to approve such resolutions whether the entity is a related party to the particular transaction or not.

However following transactions shall be exempt from the aforesaid approval requirement:

- (i) transactions entered into between two government companies;
- (ii) transactions entered into between a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.

All entities falling under the definition of related parties shall abstain from voting irrespective of whether the entity is a party to the particular transaction or not.

Taking into to consideration of the Regulations and Companies Act, 2013, Company would take relevant approvals of related party transactions as appropriate and required under the above regulations.

4. Monitoring Related Parties and Related Party Transactions

Once the list of transactions/contracts/arrangements are approved by the Audit Committee, REIL would implement controls to ensure that:

- Transactions with related parties do not exceed the limits approved by the Audit Committee.
- No contracts/arrangements/transactions are entered into with new related parties with whom, transactions are not approved by the Audit Committee

Transaction with related parties of REIL can primarily be initiated through the following channels:

- Legal contracts (for expenses and income based transactions)
- Purchase order (for expense based transactions)
- Customer Order Forms

The listing of all related parties along with the listing of transactions approved by the Audit Committee would be retained by the legal/secretarial team. The legal/secretarial team, while approving the contract, would ensure that the contract, if being entered into with any related party, is duly approved by the Audit Committee.

In case any contract/arrangement is proposed to be entered into with a related party but not included in the Audit Committee approved list, the legal team and/or the finance team would evaluate the transaction (based on guidelines in this policy) to determine the approvals required as per this policy.

For obtaining approval for additional transactions, REIL's legal/secretarial team would obtain approval from Audit Committee through a circular resolution.

The Company would present at every Audit Committee meeting, a comparative statement showing the total amount of transactions approved and total amount of transactions incurred till the date of the Audit Committee (or a cut-off date taken few days prior to the Audit Committee date). This will also facilitate Company to seek approval of incremental amounts for transactions, if required.

5. Related Party Transactions not approved under this Policy

If a Related Party Transaction is entered into by the Company without being approved under this Policy, the same shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall evaluate the transaction and may decide such action as it may consider appropriate including ratification, revision or termination of the Related Party Transaction.

In connection with any review of a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

6. Disclosure

- Every Related Party Transaction with proper justification shall be disclosed in the Directors Report.
- Details of all material transactions with related parties shall be disclosed quarterly along with the compliance report on corporate governance.
- The company shall disclose the policy on dealing with Related Party Transactions on its website and a web link thereto shall be provided in the Annual Report.

This Policy will be communicated to all operational employees and other concerned persons of the Company.

7. Review

By Board of Directors at least once every three years and updated accordingly.

8. Amendment

Initially approved by Board of Directors on 26th December, 2014 and amended on 27th May, 2016 with respect to applicability of the Regulations, amended on 23rd January, 2019 pursuant to the amendments in the Regulations and the amendments in the Companies Act, 2013 & other changes as deemed necessary and further amended on 30th January, 2020 pursuant to amendments in the Regulations.
